WILLIAM RONALD

after twenty-five years

03.04.2023 - 03.29.2023

To commemorate the 25th anniversary of William Ronald's passing, the Christopher Cutts Gallery is pleased to present "William Ronald: After Twenty Five Years," a survey of Ronald's work across his five-decade career, from the 50s to the 90s.

The show features pieces from each decade, including three of his final paintings, shown in the photo above. In the North Gallery, early works from the 50s and 60s, such as Apostle (1961), are juxtaposed with his final painting Untitled (1998). The South Gallery focuses on work through the second half of his career, from the 70s, 80s, and 90s.

William Ronald was one of Canada's most celebrated abstract painters. A graduate of the Ontario College of Art in 1951, his artistic career spanned the last five decades of the 20th century.

In 1953, he founded Painters Eleven, which pioneered modern painting in English-speaking Canada. He moved to New York City in 1955 where he exhibited at the prestigious Kootz Gallery. Ronald returned to Canada in 1965 and in 1966, entered the world of broadcasting with CBC, hosting The Umbrella and co-hosting As It Happens with Barbara Frum. In 1984, the Art Gallery of Ontario mounted an exhibition of his celebrated paintings of sixteen Prime Ministers, which toured the country.
