MATTHEW CARVER HYPERSTITION

FEBRUARY 1 – FEBRUARY 22, 2025

The Christopher Cutts Gallery is excited to present Matthew Carver's "Hyperstition." This exhibition features several new paintings and over 100 mixed-media panels created by the artist for his graphic novel Koi Cafe Time Slip, which is now available to purchase online or at the gallery.

"Hyperstition" allows viewers to walk through the narrative that Carver has spent years developing and illustrating. This is a rare opportunity to acquire the original illustrations that comprise the novel.

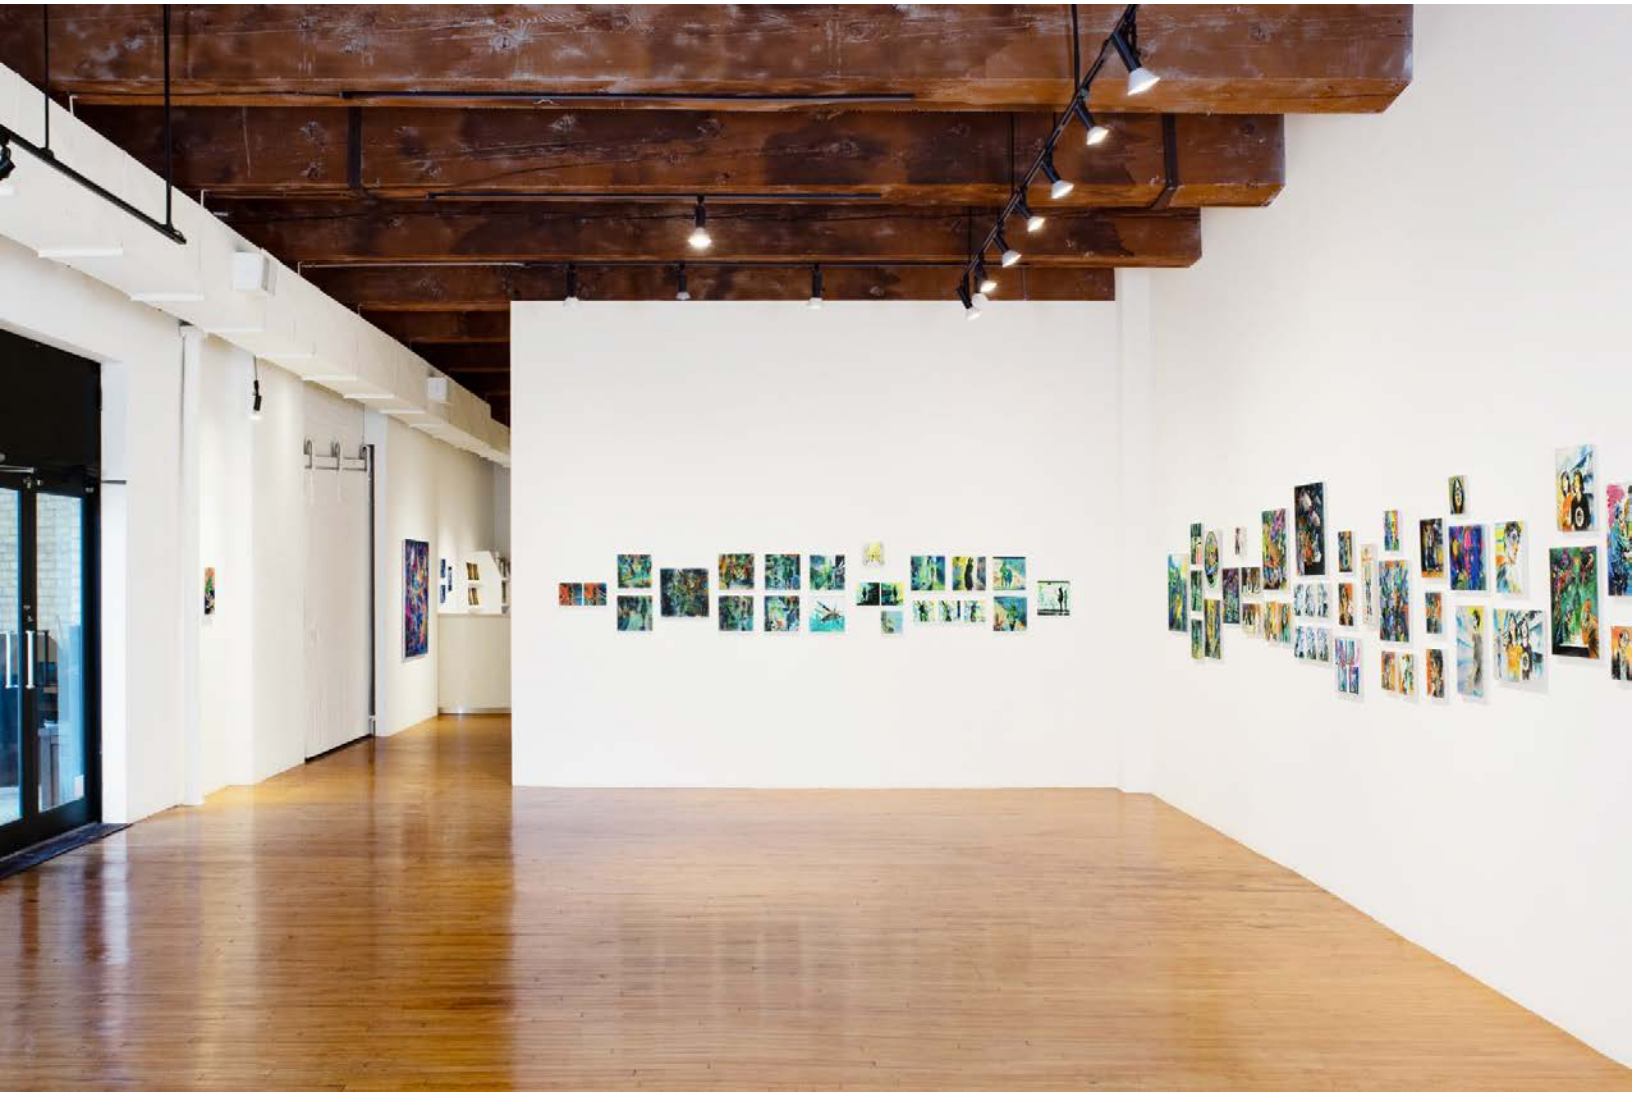

Hyperstition is the idea that imagination and belief are active forces, where fictional or speculative narratives can shape and even create their own reality. It's a feedback loop in which the line between fiction and fact blurs, with stories and myths influencing the world in unexpected, often unsettling ways. Blending science fiction, conspiracy, and philosophy, hyperstition shows that the narratives we tell are not just reflections of the present, but forces shaping the future.

Koi Cafe Time Slip

A small group of friends gather in a coffee shop set within an alternative, cyberpunk Toronto to take stock of recent adventures that were meant to save the life of John Lennon and help coax Nirvana's "Smells Like Teen Spirit" into existence. In the short span of 60 pages, we are introduced to a world of possible time travel, AI, and alternate realities. Despite its seemingly light, pulp tone, the story subtly references a range of influential and often controversial cultural figures and theorists – such as the Riot grrrl movement, Andrea Dworkin, Carol Adams, Sigmund Freud, Edward Said, Al-Khwarazmi, Nick Land, and the CCRU.
